

CELEBRATE INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

With Tracy Edwards

Monday, 14 March 2022 1:00pm - 1:45pm

Tracy Edwards MBE shot to fame when she skippered the first all-female crew to sail around the world.

She and her crew raced Maiden in the 1989/90
Whitbread Round the World Race. Trouncing her critics Maiden won two legs and came second overall, a result that remains unbeaten.

Tracy went on to create the world's first mixed gender professional racing team. In 2014 she found Maiden rotting in the Seychelles, raised the funds to buy her and restore her and in November 2018 she set off with a new all-female crew, on a three year world tour, raising funds and awareness for girls' education.
