

Tim Dillon

Commissioner, Victoria State Government of Australia in China

Tim Dillon took up his appointment as the Commissioner for Victoria in China in September 2014. Based in Shanghai, Tim represents Victoria's interests in China, Hong Kong and Taiwan and manages, in addition to Shanghai, Victorian Government Trade and Investment (VGTI) offices located in Hong Kong, Beijing, Nanjing and Chengdu.

Tim has extensive experience representing Victoria in Asia. Prior to his appointment to China, Tim served as the Commissioner for Victoria in South East Asia (2009-2014) and the Executive Director of the Tokyo Victorian Government Business Office (2004-2009).

Having dealt with many companies across a range of industries and countries, Tim has strong trade development and investment facilitation capabilities. Tim has facilitated significant investment into Victoria's renewable energy, automotive, food and fibre, tourism, retail and infrastructure sectors. Tim has worked in both the private and public sectors and has undertaken formal studies in Economics, Japanese and Asian Studies.
