

DOWN TO BUSINESS IN BEIJING

And the winner is ...

Representatives from some of Australia's leading companies doing business in mainland China and Hong Kong will attend a gala dinner in Beijing on December 3 for the 2009 Australia-China Business Awards. The 17th annual awards dinner is being held in Beijing to commemorate the 60th anniversary of the founding of the People's Republic of China.

There are many contenders for this year's awards, which include a new "people's choice" category for the biggest contribution to Australian business in the greater China region over the year.

At a time when Australia-China relations have become somewhat strained, the awards are expected to throw a spotlight on the growing number of Australian companies now operating in the world's fastest-growing market.
